PUBLISHED MONTHLY

IN THE INTERESTS OF STAMP COLLECTING.

No. 1. PETERBOROUGH, JANUARY, 1890. Vol. 2.

ODDS AND ENDS

BY "ACADIA."

Mr. J. H. Lyons of the "Philatelic Express" wishes it to be distinctly understood that in his capacity as Editor of the above named periodical he is of the opinion that the Philatelic Journal of America is the finest stamp Journal published, and he tells us that this expression of opinion is unsolicited and given gratis. It is unfortunate that Mr. Lyons' knowledge of stamps and stamp papers is not equal to his generosity. If it were we might have an entirely different opinion from him.

M. Giwelb, of London, G. B., in December number of the American Philatelist informs us that the high values official stamps of Great Britain, such as 5s., 10s. and £1, are very extensively forged or counterfeited, and warns collectors to be very cautious in buying such specimens. He even goes so far as to say that he knows the authors of the forgeries. Why then does he not come out manfully and name the parties referred to. He would spoil their disreputable traffic and do Philately a great service by putting collectors on their guard, thus causing them to shun such characters.

We do not question the right of any stamp paper publisher to secure all the patronage that he can get, but the line should be drawn somewhere. The "Philatelic News" published by H. B. Wilber & Co'y., Cambridgeboro P. A prints a whole column advertisement for W. S. Kinzer, of Wooster, Ohio, a party who has been ignominously expelled from the C. P. A. and branded the wide world over as a mean, sneaking, contemptible, paltry, thieving scoundrel, a fellow who for months carried on a system of petty stealings by substituting worthless stamps for those he coveted. He is still indebted to the C. P. A. a large amount notwithstanding all the sheets he had sent in were confiscated by the Exchange Department in the hope of making good the losses. Selling such a rascal advertising space is simply affording him the means of defrauding those who do not know his true character and I claim that any publisher who knowingly prints the advertisement of such a fraud becomes a party to his dishonesty.

The contract made by an enterprising firm in New South Wales with the Post Office Department, by which it has acquired the right to use the backs of the postal issues of the Colony for the next four years for advertising puposes is exciting considerable comment.

The general opinion is that the judgment and good taste of the Postmaster General of the Colony is very much at fault. This action has provoked a very indignant protest from Mr. A. G. Taylor, a resident of the Colony, whose letter appears in a late number of the American Philatelist, as a clipping from an Australian paper.

Mr. Taylor is evidently a collector, or at least has rubbed up against collectors at some period, as he refers to the action of the Postmaster General of New South Wales as being rivalled in only one instance, and that by the Postmaster General of New Brunswick, in 1860, the celebrated Charles Connell, who was charged by his colleagues with having unlawfully substituted his own portrait for that of Her Most Gracious Majesty.

In common with many collectors (even including such an authority as Major Evans), Mr. Taylor has fallen into the error of accusing Mr. Connell of this act of disloyalty, when the fact is, and has been proven absolutely, that the stamp with Mr. Connell's head on it preceded that with the Queen's by some months.

Mr. Deats, of Flemington, N. J., C. P. A. No. 39, informs us that he now has over 350 varieties of Canada, Tobacco, Snuff and Cigar stamps. Who can beat this?

THE PRESIDENT'S GREETING.

To the Members of the Canadian Philatelic Association :

GENTLEMEN,—It is with some degree of hesitation that I make my bow to you as your President for 1890.

While confident that I possessed the friendship and support of many members of the Association, it was almost a matter of surprise to myself that I should have been elected President of this Association in a contest with a gentleman so well and widely known as our late worthy President, Mr. Henry Hechler.

I thank you heartily, gentlemen, for your generous support and for the honor you have done me. It will be my highest aim to justify the confidence reposed in me, and I assure you that everything a ready hand and willing heart can do to advance the interests of our Association shall be done by me.

I am confident that in the selection of the other members who constitute the Official Board you could not have chosen abler or better men from our ranks. It remains with you to ably assist and second their efforts in advancing the Association to the front rank by making every endeavor to secure all the new members you can.

The Secretary will gladly supply any member applying to him for application forms, and each and every member who has the good of the Association at heart should do all in his power to increase our roll. It is only by individual effort that this is to be accomplished, as while the Association will take care to make everything as pleasant and profitable as possible for members, it can do but little as a body in securing them. That part of the work depends upon the rank and file.

For the past three months I have been acting President, during the absence of President Hechler in Europe, and I am happy to state that matters have been progressing finely. A considerable increase in the number of applications is noticeable, and all the departments seem to have been working smoothly.

I regret that I am not in a position to give you such an address as that of the illustrious President of the A. P. A., at its Fourth Annual Convention in St. Louis in October last.

It was indeed a masterly effort, and the skill with which the opposing factions were drawn together and their differences healed, bespeaks executive ability of a high order.

> " It quieted pain and sorrow,
> Like love o'ercoming strife,
> It seemed the harmonious echo
> From our discordant life,
> It linked all perplexed meanings,
> Into one perfect peace,
> And it trembled away into silence
> As though it were loth to cease."

With the approval of the other members of the Official Board I have selected as Trustees of the Association for this term the following gentlemen :—A. A. Bartlett, Esq., Charlottetown, P. E. I., Chairman ; J. Noble Crane, Halifax, N. S. ; J. H. Chapman, Montreal, P. Q. Mr. F. J. Grenny, our present efficient Exchange Superintendent, will continue to fill that office, and Mr. J. R. Hooper, Ottawa, has been appointed Librarian. The office of Counterfeit Detector and Purchasing Agent have not yet been filled, but at an early date appointments will be made.

Owing to the proposed alterations in our constitution no Vice-Presidents for the various Provinces were chosen. And of course the change from Executive Committee to Trustees, as well as several other matters, depends yet upon the adoption of the new constitution, which will be put to vote by mail at an early date. Our next convention, which is to be held in Montreal, will probably be called the week preceeding or following the A. P. A. Convention in New York, in order to give those of our members who wish to attend both a chance to do so.

In the hope of meeting many of you at Montreal next summer,

I remain yours sincerely,

A. J. CRAIG,
President, C. P. A.

PICTOU, Jan. 3, 1890.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

I beg to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the following for the Library:—

	No. Pieces.
E. Y. PARKER, Toronto, Ont.....	79
W. A. DEWOLF SMITH, New Westminister, B. C.....	60
FRED. INESON, Carlton West, Ont.	15
GEO. H. WATSON, Roselle, N. J...	1
Total.....	155 pieces

Mr. Watson's donation was part I of his Post Card Catalogue. Mr. Smith also sent a lot of price lists. Mr. W. D. Boyd, Simcoe, Ont., sent a package which was broken open and its contents lost. I returned him the wrapper, marked by the P. O. officials, "Received without contents." Mr. S. C. Scott, Calmar, Iowa, advised me Dec. 16 that he had sent a complete fyle of the defunct U. S. Philatelist, but up to date, (Jan 7) I have not received it. The P. M. here, in a letter to me says:—"You would be surprised to see the number of packets received here broken open and their contents mixed up in the mail bags." I advise all to use stout twine as well as wrappers in sending parcels of papers.

Librarian,

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The old year (1889) closes without a single entry on our slate. Many little petty complaints have been attended to and but one objection to the admission of a member, which was, however, withdrawn. A great many complaints were received, but only two were against parties we could deal with. Mr. Elwood J. Thompson, of Pittsfield, N. H., wrote complaining of one Thomas H. Barker, C. P. A. 170, of St. Johns, N. B. I wrote the secretary as to the standing of Mr. Barker, and Mr. King states that he never was a member, not having qualified, and how he got the No. to his name is a mystery. Mr. E. Y. Parker complains of Mr. Crosby, a former member of Yarmouth, N. S. Two complaints are on fyle against Agustus C. Bass, of New York City. In one he gives address 335 Hudson St., and in the other as 18 Clark St. I have placed this case before the A. P. A. Trustees. As this will be my final report, I beg to thank the other members, Messrs. Kaye and Morency, for their valued assistance on all occasions, also to the President and Secretary for many kindnesses in unpleasant duties. Yours Philatelically,

JNO. R. HOOPER,
Chairman Exec. Com.

Ottawa, Dec. 31, 1889.

GENTLEMEN,—I have this day mailed to our new Treasurer, Dr. C. E. Cameron, $45.19, being the balance on hand, also the books, receipts, etc. I have had very little business in my department during the last half of 1889, as the following will show:

EXCHANGE DEPARTMENT.

January 1, 1890.

Have received since 1st September, 1889, 260 filled sheets, value $1,388, and have circulated 40 books containing 442 sheets, value $2,455 among 24 individual members of 2 branches in Canada, and 25 individual members in the U. S. The two branches are Halifax with 25 members, and Montreal, recently organized, with six members and Mr. J. H Chapman for Manager. Quite a large balance is still due since the first of August and remains unpaid by the few members owing the Exchange Department. This is to be regretted, as it makes it unpleasant for me, and those members to whom balances are due, and it also has a bad effect upon the business of the Exchange. I do hope those members who are delinquent in this matter will settle their bills at once. Some of the accounts will have to be placed in the hands of the Executive Board, unless soon settled. Mr. H. C. Kendall, member of the A. P. A. and C. P. A., owes this Department $20 for a year now, takes no notice of letters, and refuses to make payment. F. E. Book, of Niagara Falls South, the surcharge expert, owes $9, and his case is similar to Kendall's.

F. J. GRENNY,
Supt. Ex. Dept. C. P. A.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The bills for dues for the coming half year have been sent out, and I hope the members will respond promptly and save further dunning. At the beginning of February will be sent to all members a printed postal card on which they are to give their vote, "yes" or "no," for the new constitution. This is a very important matter and I hope that not one member will neglect to send in his vote. All cards should be returned to my address at once, so that result of vote may be announced in February number of the official organ. Only three applications this month. Members had better bestir themselves. I have had many enquiries for a list of members and constitution, and wish to say to all that I did not think it worth sending out the old constitution and list, as there were so many errors in the latter in names and addresses that it is practically valueless, and the question of changing the constitution being under the consideration of the Associatien, almost destroyed the value of the first. Immediately after the vote on the constitution a new edition will be published with a correct list of members to date.

ASUNCION, October 5, 1889.

UNITED STATES OF BRAZIL.

The Provisional Government of the United States of Brazil, taking into consideration the fact that the colors of our old flag commemorate the victories and achievements of our army and navy in the defence of our fatherland, and that these colors, independently of the form of our government, represent the perpetuity of our fatherland among other nations.

Decree, that the flag adopted by the Republic maintains our traditional and national colors, green and yellow, in the following shape: An oblong yellow and green flag, having in the centre a blue sphere crossed by an oblique bar of white running from left to right, with the motto, "Ordem e Progresso," with twenty-one stars emblazoned on the field, among which will appear the constellation of Cruzeiro placed in its astronomical position. The stars represent the twenty States of the Republic and the neutral municipality of Rio Janeiro.

Second.—That the national coat of arms remain the same as the old one, with the exception that a cap of liberty shall be substituted for the imperial crown.

Third.—That the postage stamps and the government seals shall have the sphere around which will be the motto, "Republica dos Estados Unidos do Brazil."

Fourth.—That all the flags, arms, seals and stamps formed to the contrary are illegal.

URUGUAY.

Notice: By order of the General Postal Management there will be put in circulation the 14th of the current month a provisional issue of five centavos postage stamps of the same design as those issued December 1, 1886, and having surcharged in black the word "Provisorio."

DOMINION PHILATELIST, JAN., 1890.

The one cent Canada 1887 has been shown us by Mr. Holman, Chicago, on laid paper.

C. P. A. members should remit their dues promptly, as it takes money to run the Association.

We have found it necessary to again enlarge to accommodate advertisers. This speaks for itself.

With this number we begin our second year. We are well satisfied with the results of last year and feel confident that the generous support accorded to us in the past will be continued during the coming year. We especially call attention to our columns as an advertising medium. No dealer can afford to be without an advertisement with us, if only a card in our dealer's directory. Also if you wish to see us regularly every month for 1890 send us 15 cents for a year's subscription.

NOTICE.—Many whose subscriptions have expired have not yet renewed same. It must be done at once or we will strike your name off our list.

Most people, are not, perhaps, aware of the value attached to a good collection of foreign stamps. All school boys at one time or other have had the stamp craze, but it is left to older and more experienced heads to follow collecting up as a scientific pursuit. Brantford has quite a celebrated Philatelist, in the person of Major Grenny. who has followed stamp collecting for many years and who sells and exchanges stamps throughout the continent of America to the value of several hundreds of dollars a year. Another enthusiastic, although a much younger one, is Mr. Burnett, of the Royal Loan. A few days ago a buyer from New York came especially here to secure some old and rare specimens. Some of these have a marketable value of from $2 to $5 and even much higher. Stamp collecting followed with enthusiasm is a nice but expensive pursuit as its votaries will admit.—Brantford Courier.

OUR EXCHANGE DEPARTMENT.

To the Editor of the Dominion Philatelist :

DEAR SIR,—Kindly allow me space to pass a few remarks upon our excellent Exchange Department, as managed so ably by Major Grenny. I am sure that there is not a stamp collector in the Dominion who would remain for another month outside of our Association if he only knew the advantages we possess. I say no philatelist who has the "hobby" at heart can do as well in any Exchange Department in any society as in ours. I count the monetary gain I make by belonging to the C. P. A. by belonging to the C. P. A., by comparing the paltry $1 we pay twice a year with the amount I have enriched my collection, i.e., nearly $90 worth. Surely this is plain enough to all the hundreds of collectors scattered over the Dominion, who are sacrificing their duplicates and spending their money in vain hope of bettering themselves. To the very youngest collector, as well as the more advanced collector, the cost of one year's membership can easily be made on one book alone, and I have frequently had two books in a week, as my friend Mr. Grenny is a rusher. Then he is modest as well, and does not want to praise his good work. I have sent the Exchange Department a total of 130 filled sheets, valued at $415.71. The largest amount we had circulating at one time was 24 sheets, valued at $101.47. I have sold $83.54 off my sheets, and taken the value of $85.02 off others. In this I do not consider 16 sheets, value $97.41, I have now in circulation. The last sheets returned to me contained $12.98 worth of stamps, priced 30 per cent. below Scott, from which was taken $8.57 worth. This sheet was through ten active Canadian collectors' hands, but no branches, which speaks well for the splendid sale. My rule is to take off stamps to the value of my credit in the department, as I do not expect or want any cash balance but an exchange medium, whereby I can benefit my private collection.

Yours in philately,
J. R. HOOPER.

COSTA RICA SURCHARGES.

H. F. Ketcheson, Esq:

DEAR SIR,—In my communication concerning the Costa Rica surcharges I find that I made a slight error in stating that there were only three varieties of the OFICIAL surcharge on the stamps of the 1883 issue. The full number of varieties is six as follows:

Official, 15x3 mm., 1, 2, 5, 10, 40 centavos,
" 13x3 mm., 5, "
" 15½x2½ mm., 1, 2, "
" 16x3½ mm., 1, 2, 5, 10 "
" 13x3 mm., 1, 2, 5, 10 "
" 16x2½ mm, 1, 2, 5, 10 "

The 5 and 10 centavos of the 1887 issue are surcharged with this last variety. The above list is taken from the Grosses Hanbuch der Philatelie which is without doubt one of the leading authorities in our science.

With all due respect to Acadia I would like to say that when I attack a man the way he did me in the latter part of his last letter I never take refuge behind a nom de plume. In all the letters I have received from my Halifax friends there has not been one word of complaint as to what I said. I made the statement about the high prices of the shilling stamps to them when I was there and did not wait to do it incognito.

Truly yours,
WILLIAM C. STONE.

SIR: Your two letters of the 10th and 19th inst. are before me. The two unperforated "official seals" submitted with the first of these letters are genuine samples of seals which the Dead Letter Office and postmaster recently, for a short time, were using. Those that are now used are identical in design, but are perforated.

The two seals, together with a third one submitted by you—being a specimen of the steel-plate seal formerly in use—are herewith returned.
